

Best Rice Centre Award to TNAU

The Paddy Breeding Station (PBS) of Tamil Nadu Agricultural University (TNAU), Coimbatore was conferred the "Best Centre Award in Rice Breeding" for its overall accomplishments in rice varietal developments.

The award was given by the Directorate of Rice Research (Hyderabad), Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR), Government of India, New Delhi on April 2012, during the 47th Annual Rice Group Meeting held at Hyderabad between April 7th & 9th , April 2012. The award carries a plaque and a certificate.