

Tamil Nadu Agricultural University
Coimbatore – 641 003

Dr. M. Rajavel, Ph.D.,
Public Relations Officer
Mobile: 94890 56730

Phone: 0422 - 6611302
Fax: 0422 – 2431821
E-mail: pro@tnau.ac.in

To

Date: 27.05.2022

The Editor,

Sir,

I request that the following message may kindly be published in your esteemed daily:

TNAU Inauguration of transplanting at Wetland

Tamil Nadu Agricultural University, Coimbatore is offering B.Sc. Agriculture degree programme of four years duration. The principles of crop production is being taught in the first two years and the applied aspects are covered in the rest of 2 years of study. Practical crop production is one among the courses offered in the Department of Agronomy during IVth year. In the VIIIth semester, the students will learn about the package of rice cultivation. In the current even semester (VIII semester) the students are being exposed to rice cultivation. The nursery was raised and transplanting of rice was done by the students in their allotted 4 cents of land in wetland farm of Tamil Nadu Agricultural University on 27.05.2022, the transplanting was inaugurated by the Dr. N. Venkatesa Palanichamy, Dean (Agriculture), Dr. M. K. Kalarani, Director (Crop Management), Dr. N. Maragatham, Dean (Students Welfare), Dr. R. Umarani, Director (Seed Centre) and Dr. V. Balasubramani, Controller of Examination, Heads of the Departments and Scientists also took part in this august function. The transplanting was done by IVth year B.Sc.(Agriculture) students (107 Nos.).

Dr.S.Panneerselvam, Professor and Head, Department of Agronomy, Course teachers Dr. S.D.Sivakumar, Dr. V. Manivannan, Dr. P. Kathirvelan, Dr. S.P.Sangeetha and Dr.G.Prabu Kumar are involved in organizing the inaugural function of planting at Wetland farm.

Public Relations Officer