TNAU - A Brand For Talents – The Grand Gala Of Horticulture “Horti Utsav 2022” Is Here!

The Horticultural College and Research Institute of Tamil Nadu Agricultural University, Coimbatore is set out to conduct its spring fest “HORTI UTSAV 2022” on 23rd of July, 2022. Highlighting this year’s theme, “An Aesthetic Fest of Joy!”, various intellectual and cultural activities have been planned to enlighten the participants on the recent developments in the field of Horticulture as well as to motivate students to showcase and hone their cultural skills.

The students of the Horticultural College and Research Institute, at Coimbatore campus will be the host organizing this event and participants from the five Horticultural Colleges in various parts of the Tamil Nadu state are invited to showcase their talents.

For the function, Alumnus of HC&RI, TNAU, Coimbatore, Dr. V.J. Chandran, IPS, Inspector General of Police, Puducherry has given his concert to be the Chief Guest and he will be felicitating the students during the Valedictory Ceremony in the evening. This splendour fest is to be conducted with the guidance of the Honourable Vice Chancellor of TNAU, Dr. V. Geethalakshmi and the Dean of HC & RI, Coimbatore, Dr. P. Irene Vethamoni.

To make the event holistic and aesthetic, various inter-college competitions including quiz, fruit and vegetable carving, handscaping, fire-less cooking, singing, dancing, etc., are to be conducted as a part of the fest. This will enable the students to understand the aesthetic significance of Horticulture and evoke their creativity. A scientific exhibition based on various Horticultural concepts is also to be organized by the students.

Students of all Horticultural colleges can login to the website www.hortiutsav2022.com and register their names for the events of interest.
