Sir,

I request that the following matter may kindly be published in your esteemed daily:

NCC Day Celebrations in TNAU

NCC Day has been celebrated in the last week of November every year. As part of NCC day celebrations, National Cadet Corps of 4 & 5 TN Battalion NCC, Tamil Nadu Agricultural University (TNAU) organised competitions on Essay writing, Elocution and Painting for the NCC cadets from schools and colleges from Coimbatore and near by Districts on Nov. 27, 2015.

Dr. K. Ramasamy, Vice Chancellor, TNAU, Coimbatore presided over the function and distributed the prizes for the winners of the various events. He praised role of NCC in shaping the young NCC cadets in the welfare of our country. Wing Commander Anil J. Mathews, Commanding Officer 2 Air Squadron NCC, Coimbatore who is an Alumni of TNAU offered his special address. He narrated his experience in Indian Air Force and employment opportunities in Armed forces.

Dr. S. Mahimairaja, Dean (Agriculture), TNAU, Coimbatore in his address, stressed the role of NCC cadets in Nation building. Mrs Punitha Chandrasekar, Principal of Jaycee Higher Secondary School felicitated the students and explained the role of NCC in shaping the young cadets.

As part of the NCC day, an eye camp was organised with the help of Eye Foundation Coimbatore. Around 250 students and civilians were benefited out of it. The Photo exhibition on history of freedom fighters of India attracted the students and visitors. More than 150 freedom fighters were highlighted and it was noteworthy to remember.

NCC Officers Mr. Karthikeyan, Mrs. Deepa, Mr. Iruthayaraj, Mr. Arul, Mr. Karunamurthy and Mr.Sureshkumar of 4 TN Battalion were also participated. The NCC officer Capt. Dr. S. Manonmani welcomed the gathering and Lieutenant K.M.Sellamuthu offered the vote of thanks. The NCC officers of TNAU Lieutenant K. M. Sellamuthu and S.Manonmani made the arrangements for the programme.
