TNAU invites to Curl on Book Reading through Mega Exhibition

A Mega book exhibition 2015 was inaugurated by Dr. K. Ramasamy, Vice-Chancellor, TNAU, Coimbatore at 9.30 AM at the Technology Park – 2 on Feb. 11, 2015.

In an effort to garner support from various quarters to inculcate the reading habit and to promote the purchase of books, which is fading nowadays due to the onslaught of ICT tools. This is a rejuvenating attempt to induce relaxation and better balming and soothing to the mind of the individual, who really curl on various books of scientific, significance, management, mathematics philosophy, physiology genetics, public administration, communication and the like. Nearly 29 companies have participated in the book exhibition representing Coimbatore, Bangalore, Chennai, Kerala, New Delhi, Madurai and Karaikudi.

As a part of the function to motivate the Library users, who attach themselves to reading habit by various visits to utilize varied books stock in library, Certificates were distributed at UG, PG and Ph.D levels for students community and for the faculty. This mega event was witnessed by 100s of participants who peeped to the book fair to gain more fortunes and treasures and for those die hard readers.

The event was organized by Dr. H. Philip, Special Officer, Publications & Public Relations, TNAU, Coimbatore doing with Library staff.
