Sir,

I request that the following matter may kindly be published in your esteemed daily:

MoU signed between PGP College of Agricultural Sciences and TNAU for ensuring Academic excellence in Agricultural Education

The agricultural sector embarks to harness the power for second Green Revolution. The agricultural graduates are essential pillars to improve food security, sustainable agricultural production and rural development.

In this connection, TNAU has come up, to give due recognition and extended agreement for the burgeoning private colleges, who wanted to work with the philanthropic spirit. PGP College of Agricultural Sciences, Namakkal had hands in glove with TNAU which was started during the academic year 2013 – 2014.

In an effort to imbue the basic amenities and to have an assured quality education, TNAU ties up with PGP College of Agricultural Sciences. The main objective of the MoU is to provide all sorts of facilities, well furnished laboratories, modern class rooms, meteorological observatory, farm machinery, animal husbandry, regale playground, cozy hostels and hygienic messes.

It aims to involve highly experienced and skilled faculty to imbue high standard education for the budding youngsters. The MoU was signed in the presence of Dr. K. Ramasamy, Vice – Chancellor, TNAU, Dr. R. Rabindran, Registrar, TNAU and Thiru. K. Kandasamy, Secretary, PGP College of Agricultural Sciences. Dr. K. Prabakar, Dean, PGP College of Agricultural Sciences and the University officials were also present during the inking event.
