Sir,

I request that the following matter may kindly be published in your esteemed daily:

Social Entrepreneurs interact with TNAU Vice-Chancellor

An interactive meet with Deputy Collectors undergoing 7 days training programme from Commissionerate of Revenue Administration, Chennai was held at Tamil Nadu Agricultural University (TNAU) on Sept. 9, 2014.

The purpose of the week long training programme is to orient the emerging social entrepreneurs on major technological breakthroughs, e-Extension Centre, Agrl. Education, Seed Production technologies, Research and Development in Agriculture, Horticulture, prospects of Floriculture, Medicinal Plants, latest innovations of Paddy, Organic Farming, Farm Mechanization, Post Harvest Technology, Mushroom Cultivation etc. While interaction, they posed volley of questions to Dr. K. Ramasamy, Vice-Chancellor, TNAU by the participants of the training on the prospects of Employment potential for graduates' technological gap, planning methodologies, Seed Production and the like.

The Vice-Chancellor clarified the queries of the participants on Employment potential of agricultural graduates, paperless examinations, quality and performance of the graduates, segregation of seeds, cultural heritage, de-centralized planning cooperative movement, normalization of season bound cultivation, preservation of water resources for the emerging civil service personnel to build high amount of self confident and gutsy attitude to face the challenges ahead in the job arena. Further he highlighted the commitment of technocrats to strengthen the countries' heritage values with integrity and sincerity.

Nearly 54 Deputy Collectors participated and got benefited.
