Sir,

I request that the following matter may kindly be published in your esteemed daily:

Future of India is in Hands of Youth – says Agri Varsity Dean

National Service Scheme of Tamil Nadu Agricultural University (TNAU) celebrated Youth Renaissance Day on Oct. 15, 2015 to commemorate the birthday of former President of India, Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam as observed by Government.

An essay, competition on the topic “Science and Environment” and Elocution competition on “Missile Architect, Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam was conducted on the occasion.

Later, a rally was organized with a participation of 300 volunteers which started from TNAU and via Robertson Road, Milk Company, Thadagam Road, Lawley Road it reached the campus. Students carried the placards with dreams of Dr. Kalam and role of youth in Nation building.

Inaugurating the rally, Dr. S. Mahimairaja, Dean (Agriculture), TNAU, Coimbatore told that Agriculture and food processing should be given thrust for India to develop into super power in 2020. Dream is not what you see in sleep. That which does not let you sleep “he reiterated the statement of Dr. Kalam and called on young volunteers to translate his dreams into action and participate in bringing interlinking of rivers and second green revolution. Every young India should participate in national building and future. If India is in hands of youth, he added.

The programmes were organized by the NSS coordinator. Dr. K. Kumutha and NSS programme officers Dr. Vinoth, Dr. Suganya, Dr. Kavitha, Dr. Latha and Dr. Thanga Hemavathy.
