Sir,

I request that the following matter may kindly be published in your esteemed daily:

Agri Varsity NSS Volunteers at Orphanage

Twenty five National Service Scheme (NSS) Volunteers of Tamil Nadu Agricultural University (TNAU), Coimbatore visited the Night shelter orphanage of Coimbatore Corporation on 21-11-2015.

They learnt the stories of 100 inmates from the caretaker Mr. T. Gangadharan. He advised the young volunteers to take care of their parents and grandparents. They conducted singing and dancing competitions and gave prizes. They encouraged the inmates and made them feel like at home and donated sanitary items like soap, phenol and floor cleaners. They also explained the importance of cleanliness and hygiene and distributed Dengue awareness notices to the public with Earanenjam Trust.

The trustee Mr. Mahendran explained the importance of socio ethical values to students and treat all human beings as kith and kin. Dr. M.R. Latha NSS Programme officer and Dr. K. Kumutha, NSS Programme Coordinator organised the programme.
